

Do I have to activate my product when renewing my subscription?

Yes, the renewal of the subscription creates a new device containing a new certificate with the same serial number as the device that has to be renewed. Activate the Smartcard/Signing Stick that you have received in a first letter by post with the help of the activation codes, received in a second letter.

