

What is an electronic signature certificate?

The certificate of your LuxTrust device (Token, Mobile app, Scan, etc.) is similar to a digital identity card. To be more precise, it is an electronic certificate that links the validation data of an electronic signature with you as a person and confirms your name, pseudonym or other data. You can use your LuxTrust device with your certificate to sign documents online.

