

I received the email with the final code to enter in the app, but I did not have the time to do it. What should I do?

---

If you have not been able to enter the code received by email in the app within 24 hours after reception, you have to start the activation again from the beginning.

This is a security measure to ensure the protection of your electronic identity.

